

A Prayer for Personal Revival

(Please pray every day in the coming weeks)

Precious Father, I come to You in prayer to state that what I desire beyond everything else is to become recaptured by the wonder of You having chosen me to belong to You. I want to share anew the excitement of the Twelve, as they followed Your Son so closely, and as they became more and more fashioned in His image.

I'm also asking for Your Holy Spirit to grant me the privilege of being given significant assignments through which I can express my love for You and for others. Please plant Your divine love deep within my heart.

Spending hours in Your presence—reading, studying, and meditating on Your written Word and talking with You in prayer—will not prove foreign to what I'm requesting. Because of the help Your Spirit will give me, turning my back on what the world has to offer will no longer become a difficult choice. There's no question but that I'm even willing to face danger for the sake of the Kingdom, as Your Spirit enables me to do so.

The commitment I make is not a superficial one. In great humility, I'm counting the cost. I want to be numbered with those in Your inner band. Grant my request, I pray, through Jesus Christ my Lord. Amen.
